PRESS RELEASE FROM WACKEN:

This announcement is the perfect Christmas gift for Metalheads and Wacken fans alike: The mighty Iron Maiden will play next year's edition of the legendary festival in Northern Germany!

After their triumphant show in 2008, this will mark the second show of the British Metal legends at the Wacken:Open:Air. Their gig on Thursday, August 5th, 2010 will also be their only German show next year.

Comments Iron Maiden's Steve Harris: "We had a fantastic time playing at Wacken last year so when we decided to play a few festivals in Europe next Summer it seemed a great idea to return. What could be better in Germany than to play again to the 75,000 true Metalheads who go to Wacken!"

A groundbreaking Metal band like Iron Maiden on the biggest Metal festival in the world - that's match made in headbanging heaven. After the first time in 2008, even singer Bruce Dickinson said on his BBC radio show: "Wacken is enormous fun! It's just great, you wander around and see all the sideshows and bits and bobs and everything else. So it's just a fabulous weekend!"

Let's look forward to an impressive Iron Maiden show as part of the "Night To Remember" at the 21st edition of the Wacken:Open:Air, celebrating the band and their immortal set of classics old and new.

Tickets are available at Metaltix (www.metaltix.com), +49 (0)4627-18 38 38, for EUR 120,00 (incl. EUR 20,00 for Full Metal Service) plus pre-sale-fee EUR 10,00 (you don't pay more at the advance ticket offices) + postage. This includes for example:

W:O:A FESTIVAL NEWSPAPER

In co-operation with the W:O:A Team the Schleswig-Holstein newspaper publishing company will provide the fans with the latest news by reporting directly from the festivalground.

“Festival Today”, Germany's only festival paper brings all topics about W:O:A to the point. At that it's not only about the bands, it's also about news from the journey, the camping site, the beer garden, backstage, the village and much more.

This daily newspaper will be offered on thursday, friday, saturday and sunday exclusively on the festival- and camping site, so every visitor of “Festival Today” will have the chance to appreciate a daily paper to coffee or beer.

Medievalmarket

Again this year the medievalmarket was a very big success: Swordfights, rollgames, weapon- and amoursmithery, the “Alles aus Hanf” shop (“Everything made of hemp”), oriental hookah market-stall and a lot more offers and attractions. Also the new “Medieval Stage” got very good appeal from the audience.

Travelling to Wacken-Open-Air

362 days a year Wacken is a small town with 2000 souls in the middle of Schleswig Holstein, Germany. But for three days in August the population increases to 72000. Wacken is located 19 km north of Itzehoe and 77 km north/west of HAMBURG.

It's important that all festival visitors obey the instructions of the stewards and security. We encourage you to carpool in order to cut down on the traffic and resulting waiting times. Save time and money!!!

Travel with your own car:

From Hamburg : Hamburg A7 towards Kiel; A23 towards Heide; get off at Schenefeld then follow the signs.

From Kiel: The A215 towards Neumünster. Then follow the B430 towards Wacken (follow the signs).

Car Sharing Service to the W:O:A 2007:

Here you find some links to car-sharing sites, until our own service is open again: www.mitfahrzentrale.de and www.mitfahrgelegenheit.de.

Rent a car:

You can rent a car at the Airport-Lübeck and also at the Airport-Hamburg. It's the easiest way to travel to Wacken. From Lübeck you can travel directly to Wacken without the way over Hamburg. Here are the links to the most important Rent a car companies which have their stations also in Schleswig Holstein:

Hertz - Rent a Car (Sixt) - Europcar - Avis - Budget

Departure from Hamburg (Central bus station called ZOB) and from Lübeck will be in front of the terminals! <http://www.vhhpvg.ch/kundeninformation/airportbus.php>

From Hamburg airport to Hamburg station by S1:

Journey time: it takes just 25 minutes to get from the airport to the central station (Hauptbahnhof) in the city centre, where there are also connections to long distance routes – if you really want to leave the city. S1 trains (green line) depart every 10 minutes between 6.00 and 23.00 h and at 20-minute intervals at other times. Together with other rapid transit trains, underground, buses or ferries in the HVV transport association, they take you to any destination in or around Hamburg. You can go to Altona station too on the same line. From Hamburg to airport at Ohlsdorf station, the first three cars (in the direction of travel) run to the airport, the last three cars go to Poppenbüttel.
